Once upon a time a girl called Sophie was in the park. She was wearing a beautiful hat and she wore glasses too. She loved planes.

She was playing with a plane that she was doing. She was trying to make it fly but the plane couldn't fly and it crashed.

she had a picture of the plane.*

She was feeling sad because the plane didn't work. But a tiny blue bag ~~had~~ fell off and crashed with her head...

She tried again
and again but it

Sophie was sad
and disappointed.

Suddenly a plane crashed into a tree and a tiny man comes out

Then a very small person crashed with her plane against the tree. The little person came out of the plane and went to take the bag.

The big girl was surprised when she saw at Sophie.

Oh no!
She was so big! The tiny girl was very scared.

The little girl fell from the plane and then she saw a big girl. After she saw her, she defended with one very big pencil like the other girl.

She tried to protect herself with a pencil. Sophie couldn't believe it and she took a picture with her mobile phone, the tiny girl wanted to hit her with the pencil!!

So Sophie had an idea and she fixed the tiny plane with pencils but it didn't work.
