

CHAPTER 1

Once they got to the chocolate factory, a helicopter came to pick them up to go to the White House. It was the families first time in a helicopter. When they were leaving, Charlie saw the Oompa-Loompas waving them in a very strange way.

When they got there, a very nice butler greeted them at the door and then showed them to where they were they were going to have dinner. It was a giant room with really tall ceilings. In the middle of the room, there was a very long table. Sitting down at the table were people who looked like captains in the navy. There were many other people sitting at that table that Charlie didn't know, he only knew the president and the three astronauts who they had saved.

They all sat at the table. Charlie sat the closest to the President. At some point during the dinner, Charlie started to get bored, so he decided to entertain himself by inspecting the President's. every move. Charlie started to notice that the President was acting sometimes weirdly, like eating butter on its own and other strange things, and started to suspect something happened to him.

CHAPTER 2

When they were starting with the dessert, the President excused himself saying he needed to go to the toilet. Grandpa Joe told to go and bring the President back because leaving a formal dinner didn't show good manners from him.

So Charlie went to tell the President to come back to the table. When he arrived to the presidential lavatory, he knocked the door. He started knocking and knocking, but nobody answered back. When he opened it, he couldn't believe his eyes. There was an alien and not the President in there! Charlie ran back to the table as fast as he could and told all of them that the alien had kidnapped the real president.

CHAPTER 3

While Charlie was telling everybody about what he saw at the bathroom, he noticed that Mr. Wonka was not in the room. Charlie got really nervous because he thought that something really bad could have happened to him.

Charlie went to look for Mr. Wonka around all the White House, going room by room. After going around the place for a while, he started thinking that he might not find Mr. Wonka there. But, when he was about to give up, he noticed a very strange green door. He placed himself in front of it, opened it very slowly, and...he found the alien hypnotizing Mr. Wonka!

Mr. Wonka's eyes looked like Violet Beauregarde, they had turn into purple! When Charlie saw that, he ran away from the White House and went straight to the Chocolate Factory, because he remembered a thing Mr. Wonka said to him once:

-If anything would happened to me someday, go and tell the Oompa-Loompas.

CHAPTER 4

When Charlie arrived to the Chocolate Factory, he found out that the aliens had arrived to the Factory before him and that they had thrown the Oompa-Loompas out of the Factory.

Charlie told the Oompa-Loompas all what he saw at the White House, including what he saw at the toilet and how Mr. Wonka got hypnotized. While he was explaining everything, the Oompa-Loompas got an idea: they would create a cure for Mr. Wonka with the things they had inside the Chocolate Factory.

The only problem was to find a way to enter inside the factory. The factory had a back door, so they tried to used. Unfortunately, aliens were controlling that door as well. Finally, one of the Oompa-Loompas thought of entering through the air passages. He got into the laboratory, create a potion to end with the aliens who were at the door and opened it so everybody could entered. Other Oompa-Loompa found a book with a remedy to help Mr. Wonka.

CHAPTER 5

When they found the cure, they headed for the White House. Charlie got into it and then went to find Wonka. He found him in the room with the green door, just where he saw him first. Charlie gave the potion to him and suddenly, he woke up from his hypnosis.

Mr. Wonka was very confused, he didn't know what he was doing it and what had happened. Now, they needed to find the President.

Charlie and Mr. Wonka found the Oompa-Loompas at the entrance of the White House and told them the plan to save the President. While some of them were distracting the aliens, Charlie and Mr. Wonka would find the President and take him out of the White House.

The plan worked perfectly, and whenever all the Oompa-Loompas, Charlie, Mr. Wonka and the President got out of the White House, they blew up the House by exploding some bombs that were hidden inside.

THE END